16. Be it Resolved, that the Pleasantville Board of Education approve Whereas, the Pleasantville Board of Education has use of the public broadcast access channel through Comcast on channel 97;

Whereas, the Pleasantville Board of Education has limited programming on Channel 97,

Whereas, the Pleasantville Board of Education recognizes that educational, cultural, and social family programming is also limited;

Whereas, the Pleasantville Board of Education seeks greater family orientated programming for the community;

Whereas, the Pleasantville Board of Education realizes the need to expand educational, cultural and social family programming on their access channel 97

Whereas, I.C.E. Network (Innovative Community Engagement), a subdivision of Vision 2000, CDC is positioned to provide high quality family orientated and community based programming for the residents of Pleasantville, NJ

Therefore be it resolved that the Pleasantville Board of Education grants permission for I.C.E. Network to exclusively use channel 97 on behalf of the Pleasantville Board of Education;

That I.C.E. Network will prioritize any requested programming from the Pleasantville Board of Education and the City of Pleasantville to air on channel 97;

That all programming will be subject to approval from the Pleasantville Board of Education prior to airing on channel 97;

That the Pleasantville Board of Education will allow I.C.E. Network to promote all Pleasantville community events through taping and airing of such;

That I.C.E. Network will assume all cost associated with taping and airing all programs;

That this resolution will remain in effect for one year from the date of the initial broadcast I.C.E. Network.

I.C.E Network was conceived by the president of Vision 2000, CDC, when the need for family television programming heightened by the closing of TV40. The goal is to bring a diversified schedule of community- based programs for the South Jersey area. 14. Be it Resolved, that the Pleasantville Board of Education approve apply for the Title 1 Arts-Integration Pilot Program. The Title I Arts Integration Program is a grant that is open to New Jersey schools that receive Title I services using either a schoolwide or targeted assistance approach. The grant, which will offer up to $100,000 to selected schools, aims to apply various research-based arts-integration techniques to serve as intervention strategies that will lead to increased student achievement and school improvement. The goal of the pilot is to generate a wide variety of evidence-based pedagogic strategies, supported by school-level student data that substantiates the efficacy of arts-integration as a lever to increased student achievement and school improvement. Program designs must target 1) Student Learning and Mastery and either; 2) School Climate and Culture; or 3) Student Engagement; or 4) Family and Community Engagement.

15. Be it Resolved, that the Pleasantville Board of Education approve Washington Avenue to participate in the Toe to Toe Program with John Hopkins University. The program is a highly systematic page by page and step by step series of activities in one book, delivered one to one, and with instructions for the “coach” provided for each activity. It deliberately returns learners to the beginning of phonics and works up from there. Based on observation of many learners with difficulties, it was discovered that most learners seemed to have never received a good handle on phonics.

27. Be it Resolved, that the Pleasantville Board of Education approve The Middle School of Pleasantville to receive donations from Donors Choose. DonorsChoose.org enables teachers to request materials and resources for their classrooms and makes these project requests available to individual donors through its website. Donors can give $1 or more to projects that interest them, which are searchable by school name, teacher name, location, school subject, material, and keywords. DonorsChoose.org then purchases necessary supplies and ships them directly to the schools. Every project contains a line-item budget and a description of the project. All donors receive photographs of the project taking place in the classroom and a letter from the teacher. Donors who contribute $50 or more to a project also receive hand-written thank-you notes from students. There is no cost to the district for this program.

- DonorsChoose.org is open to all public and charter schools in the United States, as well as GED and Pre-K programs run by public school systems.
- All “front line educators” are eligible to create accounts on the site and submit project requests. This includes teachers, librarians, guidance counselors, school nurses and full-time teachers who also act as coaches - all must work directly with students for 75% or more of their time. Those who are not eligible include principals, administrators, PTA members, teachers' assistants, student teachers, substitutes, part-time teachers, after-school teachers, or staff developers.
