

Pleasantville's 21st Century Community Learning Centers

Combining, Academics, Recreation and Enrichment!!!

Notes to Parents March 31st

Instagram- We are excited to share our Instagram photos with you. Search Pleasantville CARE to view photos of your student in activities and field trips. FACEBOOK- CARE Project Pleasantville, NJ.

Project Update- Currently we are serving an average of 250 students per day. We have 15 different activities available to students as well as academic remediation at 4 District sites. We have added many new certified teachers to assist with tutoring and NJASK preparation. The Aquatics Center has been made available for program participants every Wednesday.

Paperless Priority- In an effort to be more environmentally conscious we are posting all permission slips for trips and events on the District web page under 21st CCLC CARE bubble in printable format. They will be available on-line 2 weeks before paper copies are sent home. Students will be able to print and return forms prior to distribution to reserve their spot on any trip. 2 new forms for the Atlantic City Aquarium/ Dolphin Watch and visit to the 177th Jersey Devils Fighter Wing are available now.

Parent/ Faculty Meeting- Thursday April 3rd at 6:30pm at the Middle School Project Room there will be a parent/ faculty meeting to discuss the upcoming spring break and summer programming. All are welcome and encouraged to attend.
