

MAY 16

THOUSANDS OF RUNNERS ROCK 'N' ROLL ACROSS ATLANTIC CITY

Atlantic City - Surmounting a two-year pandemic stumbling block, runners were finally able to rock and roll across the Boardwalk on Sunday.

Karin Farkas, the acting superintendent of Pleasantville Public Schools, also volunteered at the race Sunday. She said she was there to support those running as part of a local Special Olympics program.

See The Press of Atlantic City for full article.