About Dr. Hilton

As a school counselor and advocate, Dr. Hilton supports our students in their academics, career, and personal/social. Providing support in all areas to assist our students in becoming productive and resilient students in the community is Dr. Hilton's goal. Education is imperative, and I am here to help our students graduate and plan their next steps after middle school.

Dr. Hilton

Dr. Hilton is originally from New York City and now calls New Jersey home. He graduated from Thomas Edison State University with a Bachelor's in Liberal Studies, and following that, received his Master's from Wilmington University in School Counseling and has been a counselor for the past three years.

About Ms. Christos

She looks forward to assisting students with their educational career and academic excellence. Every student should remember..."Success is the sum of small efforts repeated day in and day out." When she is not in school she loves to lay on the beach and read a good book. Miss Christos also enjoys walking her dog Bear and watching some Eagles football.

Ms. Christos

Miss Christos grew up in Beachwood, NJ and received her Bachelor's degree from Stockton University in Arts followed by a Master's degree from Monmouth University in Education of School Counseling. This is her 2nd year at MSP and her 6th year as a School Counselor. She has worked in elementary, middle and high school levels of education along with children/ adult mental health centers.
